

Cecile Comrie Biography

With a robust career spanning over two decades in human services, Cecile Comrie is a seasoned management professional known for her exceptional organizational skills, positive attitude, and excellent communication abilities. Her proven leadership and problem-solving capabilities have made her a valuable asset in every role she has undertaken. Her most significant role has been as a single parent to her children, Caila a graduate of Stetson Law School, and Chai a rising third-year scholar at FAMU.

Ms. Comrie currently serves as an Account Manager at Public Partnerships, LLC (PPL) overseeing fiscal management services for adults participating in the Participant Direction Option (PDO). Her role encompasses monitoring contractual obligations, managing program operations, conducting Case Manager Trainings, handling payroll and participant budgets, overseeing Medicaid billing, and ensuring compliance with state audits.

She has also served as a Case Management Supervisor (April 2006 – September 2013) with Broward County Elderly & Veterans Services, Inc., Fort Lauderdale, FL. In that position, she supervised community case managers in the Behavioral Health Section, developed release plans for elderly forensic consumers, conducted competency restoration classes, and ensured compliance with regulatory requirements. Her responsibilities also included crisis counseling, intake screening, staff training, and billing reviews.

Ms. Comrie's education includes a Bachelor of Science in Psychology, and a minor in chemistry from the University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, PA. She also has a Master of Social Work (Specialization: Administration, Policy, and Planning) and a Certificate in Gerontology.

Ms. Comrie has been an active volunteer in her community especially with the Urban League of Broward County's education program, the National Achievers Society, since her children were inducted in 2014. Her dedication and commitment to these students was recognized last year when she received the Urban League of Broward County's 2023, I Am Empowered Award. This award recognizes an individual who, through the Urban League's programs and services, has been instrumental in promoting superior progression toward self-sufficiency.
